

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Women's History Month begins with Feminist Resource, Education & Empowerment (F.R.E.E.) Center Ribbon Cutting

On Friday morning, the campus community gathered to celebrate the reopening of the college's newly branded Feminist, Resources, Education, and Empowerment (F.R.E.E.) Center. Justin Mendillo '18, director of gender and sexuality programs, hopes that through the expansion of the Center, women on campus will have more access to resources, revitalized programs, and more.
