

State of the College

Leo I. Higdon, Jr.
September 29, 2007

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Vision

Connecticut College is actively working toward increased recognition as one of the finest liberal arts colleges in the country.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Achieving the Vision

- Investment consistent with educational principles and strengths
- Novel approaches to liberal arts education:
 - life sciences, internationalism, residential life

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Moving Forward

Set the Priorities

- Program enhancement
- Excellence in people
- Build pride, communications
- Physical facilities renewal

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Building Momentum

Inauguration – set the tone

Plan completed

- Priorities defined, funding sources identified, measurable outcomes developed

Admission

- Applications, quality, diversity

Faculty – research funding and hiring

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Building Momentum

Fundraising

- Annual Fund, senior class gift, recent gifts

Recognition

- Fulbrights, media

Diversity

- LGBTQ Center, Women's Center, CCSRE

Campus Renewal

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

2007-08 Successes

Early indicators of a great year

- NSF grants, $1 million+
- Major gifts
- Athletic complex makeover
- Campus renewal
- Emergency preparedness
- Continued national media exposure

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE